

Morse code has gone the way of the vacume tube. Yes they are still used but are no longer needed. Approval of RM-10869 would only help ham radio on it's downward spiral. Morse code free access to HF would be a great improvement to the hobby and possibly a catalyst to revive it.